

NUMBER OF PART-TIME ENROLLEES BY TYPE OF DEGREE GRANTING INSTITUTION IN METRO SOUTH/WEST (2000-2010)

Part-time enrollment in two-year institutions in Metro South/West has picked up in the past few years. Between 2000 and 2006, part-time enrollment in two-year institutions grew at annual rate of 1.6 percent. But between 2006 and 2010, part-time enrollment grew at an annual rate of 4.0 percent. As a result, the number of students enrolled part-time in two-year institutions as a share of total part-time students in Metro South/West increased from over 57 percent in 2000 to nearly 77 percent in 2010.

Source: National Center for Education Statistics, Integrated Post Secondary Education Data System.

